

Fomboni on 5th January 2010

The general public and the regulated companies in Mwali (Mohéli) is informed that from February 1, 2010 shall enter into force a new Customer Protection Act 2009, stipulating that all regulated companies on their business premises and web pages are enquired publish a M.I.S.A. logo which the company licence number.

Companies that violate this law after February 1, 2010 can be fined up to 100,000 USD or revoke the license or both.

M.I.S.A. security logo is permitted to use to all companies that have a valid license issued by M.I.S.A. or local regulatory authorities. The logo consists of a license number and verification is possible to click on the logo to verify the validity of licence.